

INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM - June 26-27, 2024

From single chronic disease to multimorbidity prevention, surveillance, and public health policy: need for multisectoral approaches

Location: Santé publique France, Paris

12 rue du Val-d'Osne, 94415 Saint-Maurice Cedex - Allée Vacassy

JUNE 26, 2024

13:00 – Welcome - Registration

14:00 – Welcoming remarks - Santé publique France - Direction Générale (Prof Laëtitia Huiart)

14:15 – EUPHA Chronic Disease Section - Prof Saverio Stranges (Western University, Canada) & Introduction to symposium - Dr. Tatjana Makovski (Santé publique France)

14:30 – First Keynote Speaker - Prof Iveta Nagyova (President EUPHA, Slovakia)

*Effective prevention and management of multimorbidity in Europe:
The need for synergies and innovations*

15:00 – Second Keynote Speaker - Prof Marjan van den Akker (Goethe University, Germany)

Addressing the global challenge of multimorbidity

15:30 – Coffee Break & Networking

16:00 – First Panel Discussion - Current perspectives across Europe

Valentina Andreeva, Michele Cecchini, Sarah Cuschieri, Tatjana Makovski, Marjan van den Akker

17:00 – Third Keynote Speaker - Prof Elio Riboli (Imperial College, UK)

European Cancer Prevention Plan: an opportunity to tackle multimorbidity burden across Europe

17:30 – Fourth Keynote Speaker - Dr. Amaia Calderon Larrañaga (Karolinska Institute, Sweden)

Epidemiological research on multimorbidity: challenges and opportunities

18:00 - 19:00 – Cocktail & Networking

19:30 – Social Gathering & Dinner

JUNE 27, 2024

9:00 – Welcome Coffee & Networking

9:30 – Fifth Keynote Speaker - Prof Licia Iacoviello (LUM/Neuromed, Italy)

Design of epidemiological studies for ageing and chronic disease research in the modern era...

10:00 – Sixth Keynote Speaker - Dr. Piotr Wilk (Western University, Canada)

Methodological challenges and data sources for multimorbidity research to inform policy

10:30 – Seventh Keynote Speaker - Prof Joël Coste (Santé publique France), Dr. Laure Carcaillon-Bentata (Inserm, Bordeaux PharmacoEpi, University of Bordeaux) and Prof Jose Valderas (National University of Singapore)

Surveillance and prevention of multimorbidity – what do we need to prevent

11:00 – Second Panel Discussion - Challenges and opportunities for multimorbidity research, surveillance and prevention

Pierre Arwidson, Panayotis Constantinou, Fabrizio Faggiano, Amaia Calderon Larrañaga, Kathryn Nicholson

12:00 - 13:30 – Lunch Break & Networking

13:30 – Eighth Keynote Speaker - Dr. Eric Breton (EHESP school of public health, France)

Tackling complex problems requires multisectoral solutions: French experience

14:00 – Third Panel Discussion - Multisectoral approaches to tackle multimorbidity - Integration of public health, primary care and occupational health

Franca Barbic, Eric Breton, Michele Cecchini, Julian Mamo, Marjan van den Akker

15:00 – Fourth Panel Discussion - Future perspectives

Sarah Cuschieri, Laëtitia Huiart, Iveta Nagyova, Elio Riboli, Saverio Stranges

16:00 - 16:30 – Symposium Summary & Next Steps (Tatjana Makovski and Saverio Stranges)